Fire District Orders New Station Plan

Action toward construction of a new fire station at Valparaiso and Alameda de las Pulgas was taken by commissioners of the Menlo Park fire district in their monthly meeting Wednesday night.

The board decided to retain a local architect to start immediate work on plans and specifications as a working basis for computing cost and calling for bids. The architect will be selected from several being contacted.

The commissioners also directed Chief Thomas Cuff to proceed with a survey of the four lots purchased at Valparaiso and the Alameda in 1946. It is possible two of the lots will be sold and the station constructed on the remaining two.

Cuff said that probably several sets of plans would be drafted and the commission would select the most desirable. He said the commission desires to expedite the project and call for bids as soon as possible.

The new station is one of two planned for the district. The second, which would include shops and drill facilities, is planned at a site on Bay road near Marsh road, yet to be selected.

The commission indicated it would hold a special meeting, before the next monthly meeting on May 10, to discuss progress of plans for the Valparaiso-Alameda station.

The commission also on Monday night discussed tentative plans to purchase a water tank rig for strip burning in this summer's weed abatement program. The apparatus would be kept at the new station.

MP Recreation Council Set To Guide Work

More than 100 interested persons organized the Menlo Park recreation coordinating council at a meeting at the Little theater Tuesday night, electing officers, preparing for a survey of overall future recreation needs and hearing an explanation of immediate requirements.

Representatives from adjacent unincorporated areas attended the session and helped lay groundwork for a recreation survey that will embrace the entire Menlo Park fire district.

Elected council officers were Mrs. Floyd Davidson, chairman; Hy Zimmer, vice chairman and Miss Elaine Tompkins, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Davidson is the immediate past president of the Menlo Park Parent-Teacher association, Zimmer is president of the Southeast San Mateo County Recréation association and Miss Tompkins is a 'teen-age representative.

Mel Kendall, city recreation director, stressed the need of a wading pool at Burgess park, portable bleachers for use at various recreation places, coverings for the per-

Lions' Benefit Dance Saturday

The first annual dance and variety show sponsored by the Menlo Park Lions club for benefit of the Palo Alto Society for the Blind will be held Saturday night, April 23, at 9 p.m. at the gymnasium in Burgess recreation park.

Ticket sales for the highly-deserving cause have been conducted by Lions club members for the last several weeks. The club is a sponsor of the society's activities in behalf of the blind.

Saturday night's event will include dance music by Jim and Ardith Wells' band from North Dakota, making its frst appearance or a west coast tour, and several acts that have won awards in recent amateur talent quests.

The dance will be in the western theme and western dress will be in order.

C of C Decides Tonight On Celebration Plans

A final decision on whether to go ahead with plans for a community celebration and exposition in June is to be made at a special membership meeting of the Menlo Park chamber of commerce in city council chambers tonight at 8 p.m.

The meeting was called at Tuesday's regular membership session, when the proposed event . . . barred from Burgess recreation park and the parking plaza by order of the city council . . . continued to receive chamber support.

A concensus at Tuesday's meeting was that the chamber consider staging an event along different lines than originally planned, if a suitable site can be obtained. Several prospective places are under investigation.

As tentatively outlined Tuesday, altered plans for a celebration would eliminate the original proposal for a professional carnival and drop the "industrial" theme.

Numerous objections have been made against a carnival and the stressing of the "industrial" note in a community regarded as essentially residential.

As now planned, the celebration would stress the home community theme, with exhibits along those lines. B. Frank Thompson, chamber program manager, said business firms have shown interest in exhibiting home manufacturing, such as patios, outdoor living rooms, garden articles, etc.

In general, he said, the project would be carried on along modest lines, aimed at being entirely a home town affair, with appropriate entertainment and exhibits. There would be none of the ambitious entertainment projects such as those of last year, when "name" entertainers accounted for a major part of expenditures.

Tonight's meeting will definitely decide on continuing or abandoning celebration plans, Thompson said.

Former Postoffice Remodeling Starts

Remodeling of the former postoffice quarters in the Maloney block on El Camino Real was under way this week.

Postmaster Harry B. Morey said the work is being confined to the front of the property to give it more of a business building appearance.

Morey added that the building has not yet been rented.

New Church Planned By Holy Trinity

An important chapter in Menlo Park history is about to end; another is about to begin.

The Rev. Eric W. Jackson, rector of Holy Trinity Episcopal church, yesterday announced decision of the vestry to launch a campaign to raise $82,000 for construction of a new church.

The new building will not replace the present one, which has stood for many years as a symbol of Holy Trinity's 65 years of history that is a part of Menlo Park's own story.

Plans have been prepared by Kingsford Jones for a building to be situated on the same parish property that includes the present church, rectory and parish house. The little building that for decades hase been used for services will become a chapel to be used in conjunction with the projected new structure.

The new building will occupy the vacant corner of the lot fronting on Ravenswood avenue and Laurel street.

Members of committees to direct the campaign and construction are being selected and details of the project, along with a timetable for fund raising, start and finish of construction, will be announced later.

Pointing to the essential need for the new building, Mr. Jackson said that a church built to accomodate 96 persons was used this Easter Sunday by more than 600 at four services.

"We must expand to provide a spiritual home adequate for our parish family," he said.

History of Holy Trinity goes back to 1884, when the community of 250 persons had no Protestant church. In July of that year, Col. and Mrs E. E. Eyre and other residents arranged for the Rev. William Stowe, who had resigned a church in Redwood City, to hold Protestant Episcopal churches in the town schoolhouse.

In 1885 and 1886, funds were raised for the first church building and it erected on ground on Felton lane across from the Felton estate, with Mr. Stowe as rector. In 1895, a young priest, Edward L. Persons, became Mr. Stowe's assistant. Mr. Parsons was destined to become bishop of California.

In August, 1897, the building was moved to a lot on Oak Grove avenue near Laurel street . . . a unique move in that a service was conducted while the structure was en route on rollers.

After Mr. Parsons married in 1897, the first rectory was established, utilizing a lodge at the west gate of the Hopkins estate. This was the unofficial rectory until the one on Ravenswood avenue was built in 1913.

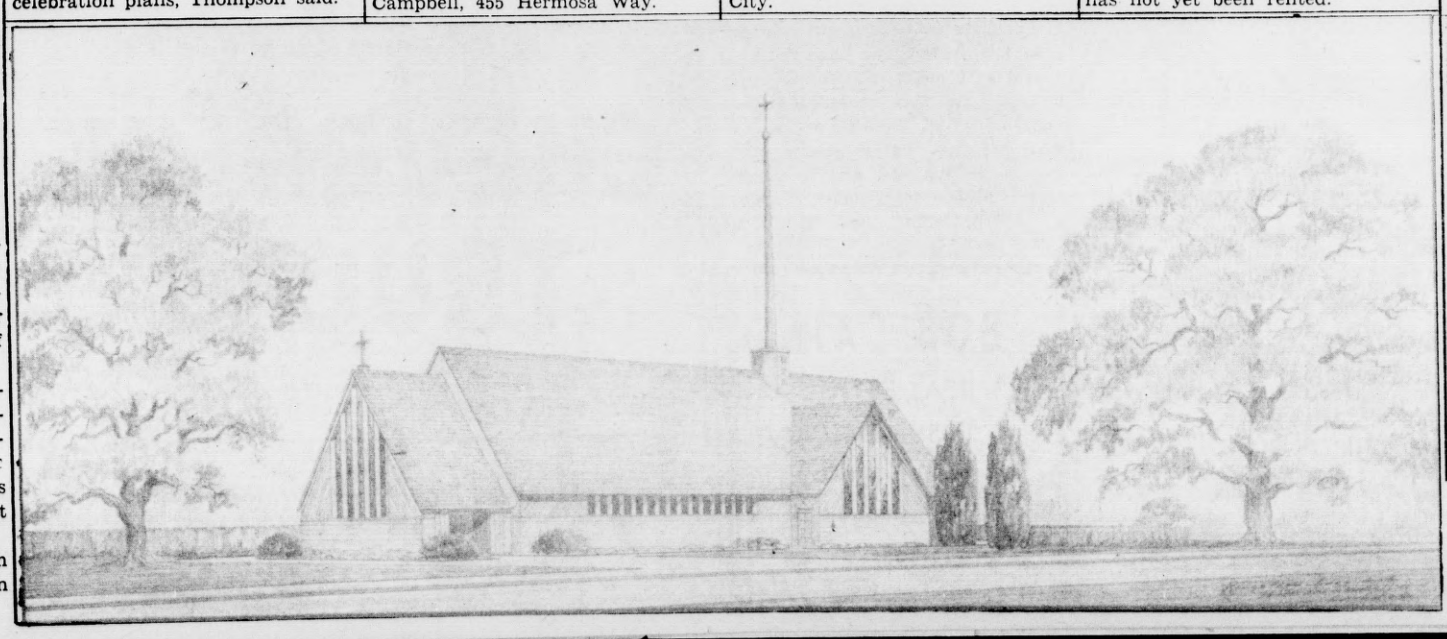

In May, 1898, a vestry and guild room was built.

Mr. Parsons resigned as rector in May, 1900, to accept a call to St. Matthews in San Mateo and the Rev. N. B. W. Gallway of New York was named in his place. In July, 1903, six acres of land were brought on the northeach corner of Laurel and Ravenswood.

It is on a portion of this land that the present buildings stand and the new church is to be built.

Mr. Gallway went to St. Matthews church in April, 1904. Succeeding rectors were the Rev. Kingsley Blodgett, the Rev. Hugh E. Montgomery, the Rev. Ralph P. Smith and the Rev. Charles Edward Fritz. Improvements to buildings and grounds were made during their years of service.

Mr. Jackson became rector in 1945. In 1947, the church building again was moved, this time to its present site facing Pine street on the lot that contains the rectory and parish house.

CHURCH DESIGN—At left is the architect's sketch of the front elevation of the new Holy Trinity church, plans for which were announced yesterday.

As We See It . . .

WHY NOT A COMPROMISE?

The chamber of commerce will make a final decision at a special membership meeting tonight on whether to carry on or abandon plans for a community celebration in June along lines considerably changed from original plans. Major change would be dropping plans for a professional carnival, and to eliminate the idea of staging an "industrial" exposition. Rather, the chamber decided at a meeting Tuesday, any event would be tailored to meet wishes of the community. Plans for a carnival and stressing of the "industrial" aspect have met strong public opposition.

The chamber has been turned down by the city council on an original request to use Burgess recreation park and a second one to use the plaza, scene of last year's centennial celebration. The chamber realizes it now must decide immediately if it is to go farther in its plans. It acted wisely in calling tonight's special meeting to make such decison.

Unquestionably the chamber acted precipitately in making the plans it did without first getting a public reaction. It now has taken cognizance of the community's expressed wishes, and has indicated willingness to change its plans.

The city council at its April 12 meeting let things swerve from the point in a discussion of the celebration that wound up in refusing use of the plaza. There were numerous assertions that had nothing to do with the one issue before council . . . use of the plaza and waiving of business license fees. There was some strange reasoning advanced by a council majority that voted down the request for use of the plaza, which certainly is suitable for a community celebration. Some councilmen were more concerned with whether there was to be a celebration, period. The matter got out of hand when one councilman took the chamber to task for its direction of last year's fete.

We suggest that if the chamber is willing to change its plans so as to stage an event in keeping with public wishes, the council might well consider meeting the chamber halfway, reconsider the plaza issue and allow its use. It certainly wouldn't harm itself in the public eye.

VIEWING THE EVIDENCE

It isn't very often that taxpayers get opportunity to see concrete evidence of where their money goes. Much of the tax dollar is channeled into abstract fields and the only thing presented to the taxpayer is a fiscal report.

Not so last Wednesday evening, when the Menlo Park Parent-Teacher association sponsored an open house and informal dedication of the newly opened Encinal school on Encinal avenue and Middlefield road. Visitors had first hand opportunity to view physical evidence of where some of their tax money was spent.

Inasmuch as we had opportunity to preview the building a few weeks ago, when it was nearing completion, we feel that the many persons who inspected the facilities at Wednesday night's open house must have come away convinced that Encinal school is proof of a good return on the tax dollar.

BUSY WEEK FOR LIONS

The Menlo Park Lions club has two important events scheduled within the next few days. Tomorrow night it will stage its first annual dance and variety show for the benefit of the Palo Alto Society for the Blind, of which the club is a sponsor. Next Wednesday, April 27, the Lions will hold their eleventh annual Boys Day, when boys of Menlo Park schools will "take over" as city officials and businessmen.

The Lions clubmen promise an entertaining event tomorrow night, when many Menlo Park residents will dance at the Burgess recreation park gymnasium as a means of providing funds needed by the society for the blind.

Boys' day, of course, is a familiar event in Menlo Park. After a day of administering the city government and directing business enterprises the young civic leaders of tomorrow will be guests at a dinner and entertainment at the recreation park. The value of Boys' Day is well established; we are sure it will have the usual community support.

GOOD TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT

On the opposite side of this page appear the weekly "The Human Race" cartoon and an accompanying report on Menlo Park traffic arrests and accidents for the week ended April 19.

Arrest and accident figures generally are regaded as just plain statistics. They really are more than that, for there always is a conclusion to be made as to the actual effect of traffic enforcement work . . . conclusion based on the standard traffic enforcement index developed by the National Safety Council. The index is the proportion of arrests for moving violations . . . the kind that cause accidents . . . to the number of injury and fatal accidents.

The minimum index regarded by the safety council as indicative of good enforcement work is 10.

As the Menlo Park report shows, there were 48 citations the past week for moving violations, and no injury or fatal mishap. In other words, the Menlo Park index was nearly five times that regarded as necessary in accident prevention.

Your City's Business

No Intent To Reduce Bonds

By MAYOR CHAS. P. BURGESS

It was a matter of some surprise to me to note in the daily papers of this area that the Sequoia high school board was meeting last Friday night to discuss a possible reduction in the size of the bond issue which goes on the May 20 ballot. I could see no reasonable basis for reduction, and inquired at the meeting as to whether such intent existed on the part of any member. It did not.

Voters in this area have been faced with one bond issue after another, and property owners have shouldered tax rate increase after tax rate increase, a portion of which consists of the tax for bond interest and redemption. This year almost 12 per cent of our tax bill represents bond service, compared with 2 per cent four years ago. Additional bonds, therefore, should be voted only if the need is paramount.

Let us take a look at the high school's need for new building. The present high school plant was built to accommodate 1600 students. There are now 2538. Moreover, as we go down into the grade schools we find that because of a rapid increase in the birth rate beginning in the middle 1930's, incoming kindergartens are three times the outgoing eighth grades, and that each graduating class will be larger than that which preceded it, even if no additional population moves into the district, an assumption belied by the homes now under construction all over the area. These increasing graduating classes are going to increase the high school enrollment sharply.

It is readily possible to compute high school enrollment in future years by the number of children now in the elementary grades. Such a computation, of course, assumes that no new homes are constructed hereafter.

This, then is Sequoia's enrollment.

1950-51	2868
1951-52	3023
1952-53	3274
1953-54	3507
1957-58	5315

There will be of the above total 828 in the district to be served by the Menlo Park area high school in the first year it is to be open, 1950-51. It would obviously be impractical to build only the 600 student high school originally contemplated. And there would still be more than 2000 students at Sequoia.

A school to serve the San Carlos-Belmont area is proposed to be open by 1951-52. It would have an initial enrollment of 634, with 847 at Menlo Park, and Sequoia finally down to 1542. But by 1957-58 Sequoia would be up to 2348 again, Menlo Park would have 1520, and San Carlos-Belmont 1447. And all this assumes that not a single new family moves into the district!

What does the proposed $2,150 000 bond issue provide? Of the total, $569,000, or 26½ per cent, is to be added to the $873,000 reserved in the last bond issue to build an 800-student high school for the Menlo Park area. Another $1,496,000, or 70 per cent, is to be used for the construction of the San Carlos-Belmont plant. The remaining $85,000, or 4 per cent, is to be used to supplement funds voted in the 1948 bond issue for improvements at Sequoia, comprising a badly needed new wing and a new gymnasium.

It is obvious that the taxpayers of the District must provide housing for a substantially increased number of high school students over the next few years. The bond issue on the May 20 ballot calls for no frills, but only the bare essentials of educational need. Because of the considerable time that must elapse between the planning and final construction of a high school plant, it is essential that these bonds be voted now.

Editor's note: The RECORDER has received the following letter from Councilman George S. Ford in explanation of certain views he expressed at last week's council meeting, at which the chamber of commerce was refused use of the parking plaza for a 49er centennial and industrial exposition. The RECORDER gladly prints Mr. Ford's letter in the interest of presenting all sides of a question.

Editor, Menlo Park
Recorder and Gazette
Dear Sir:

I would appreciate your allowing an explanation of that part of my remarks made at the city council meeting of April 12 which you quoted in your editorial of April 15.

There is not and has never been any doubt in my mind as to the bright future ahead for our city. I am sure, however, that you will not queston the fact that a steady normal growth allowing time for the additional responsibilities to be orderly and adequately absorbed by the various departments of the city is the best possible kind of progress.

By its annexations, its new subdivisions and its business sections, Menlo Park has increased its population many times in the past few years. Surely no one would wish to arrest this very fine development, but I do feel that a pause to digest our rapid advancement is necessary on occasion lest we get indigestion.

Thus, a slight note of caution does not seem amiss particularly if progress is not made toward that end that will make us proud of our fine city.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE S. FORD.

Cubs Attend Skating Party

Approximately 30 Cub Scouts of Menlo Park Pack 4 and many of their brothers and sisters spent Wednesday afternoon, April 13, at a skating party at Skatehaven in South Palo Alto. Various games and races were played on skates and everyone enjoyed an excellent time.

On Friday evening, April 22, at 7:30, in Central school auditorium, Menlo Cub Pack 4 will have its next meeting.

Highlights of the program will be a marionette show made and presented by Den 4, and a circus sketch by Den 1. All parents and friends of the cubs are invited to attend this meeting.

Technical Schools Opened to Trainees

High school graduates are now being selected for the navy's technical school program. Over 20 schools are included in this program, including electrical, diesel repair, machinist, printers, radioman, journalist, and photography.

Young men selected for this program are so notified before they join the navy. This program offers young men the opportunity to learn a skill, using the best of equipment, and to be paid while attending this school. Full information on this program may be obtained by phoning or visiting the Redwood City navy recruiting station in the county courthouse, EM 8-1185.

Mothers Arrange Party May 14

Menlo-Atherton Girl Scout Mother's club will present a benefit tea on Saturday, May 14, from 2 to 4:30 at the home of Mrs. Leo Roselyn, 130 Tuscaloosa avenue, Atherton. The party will be one of the most beautiful of the season. Planned for entertainment is an adult and children's fashion show and the spectacular Stanford aquacade. The setting is the pool and garden of the Roselyn home. A fine marimba band will provide the atmospheric background for the entire performance and the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Donald Staples, general chairman of the party, announces that tickets for the tea are being handled by Mrs. Max Forsythe, DA 2-6418.

The Mothers' Club is endeavoring to raise funds for the general treasury of the Menlo-Atherton Girl Scout Council. Although the Girl Scout organization is a Community Chest agency, the Menlo-Atherton council is part of the Sequoia district area council and as such receives no funds from the Community Chest. The funds raised by the Mothers' club will be used to assist the individual troops for sports equipment, art, handcraft, and the many fine projects engaged in by the girls.

Mrs. Staples hopes that many Girl Scout mothers whose busy lives preclude their participation in Scouting will avail themselves of this party opportunity to meet together and with the women who are leading their daughters in this splendid organization.

P. G. and E.'s new power lines would reach half-way' round the world

Swinging between towers and poles in Northern and Central California today are some 12,000 miles of new power lines . . . added since war-time building restrictions were lifted. And even more new lines are going up at the rate of 3,000 miles a year. That's three times as fast as prewar construction. All told, more than 50,000 miles of transmission and distribution lines are already on the job in the area we serve—America's largest inter-connected power network.

Helping speed the job are new methods and equipment like this radio telephone. With it an engineer can tell a distant winch operator just how much tension to put on the line as it is hoisted up and strung between towers.

These new lines and half a million new horsepower are serving California's expanding industrial and agricultural activities. Last year alone, more than 71,000 new electric customers were connected to P. G. and E's system.

For the record
P. G. and E. is investing millions in new power-producing facilities.
This post-war expansion program—America's greatest—is about at the half-way mark . . .
. . . and is keeping ahead of Northern California's growing power needs.

Work never stops on our power-building program

School Activities

Our president Philip Norgren of the fifth grade at Fremont chose new monitors. We change our monitors every two weeks. One person can not be the same monitor twice. We have fourteen different monitors. They are all responsible for something.

—Gottfried Paasche.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

This week the fifth grade girls of Fremont started to play baseball. The captains are Ramona McIntosh and Suzanne Baughn. The umpire is Eugenia Dunne. It's lots of fun to play.

—Janet Bertoni.

EASTER EGG HUNT

On Friday, April 8, the fifth grade of Fremont had an Easter egg hunt. Each child of the fifth grade brought two Easter eggs. Then we had refreshments. When we finished the refreshments we had relays.

—Virginia Cincera.

CARD CATALOG

Everyone in the Fremont fifth grade writes a card about a book he or she reads. Then our School Librarian types the cards, and gives them to our teacher. Our teacher then pins them on the wall. That way we can find out the books in our library, and those we wish to to read.

—Gary Grider.

'Menlo Mixers' Is Dance Group Name

"Menlo Mixers" is the name chosen by the Menlo Park community folk dance group at a meeting in the gymnasium at Burgess recreation park.

On Wednesday, April 27, registration for beginners as new members of the group will be conducted at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium, and instruction will begin immediately after registration, said Fred Slater, instructor.

The beginners' classes then will continue on either Monday or Wednesday nights, the nights to be announced at the time of registration.

The Menlo Mixers, organized last fall, now number 140, Slater said. It extends an invitation to all interested persons residing in the Menlo Park fire district and who know folk dances to attend their sessions.

Tennis Lessons Offered Members

Opportunity to learn to play tennis under expert direction seldom is offered to Girl Scouts for the nominal registration fee of 50 cents. This week applications are being accepted for a course of six weeks lessons by Mrs. Donald Newport. At completion of the course those who pass the tests will be eligible for their tennis badges.

Classes begin next week on Mondays and Thursdays from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the tenis courts in Burgess Park. Those girls who would like to take advantage of this exceptional opportunity and who have not registered this week, may do so next week on either of the class days.

Mrs. James F. Stepp's Troop 68 from Fremont had a wonderful day at Woodhaven Thursday, April 14, during the Easter vacation.

The entire troop, accompanied by Mrs. Stepp, Mrs. John Davenport, Mrs. Roy Layne and Mrs. Donald Newport enjoyed a picnic lunch with an afternoon surprise birthday cake and ice cream for Mary Blake, whose mother had sent the refreshments for Mary's birthday.

Reference — Uniform Exchange Box! Mrs. Edward J. Mellon, 2150 Menlo avenue, DA 2-6952, has volunteered to manage the handling of the uniforms. Upon request, Mrs. Mellon reports, uniforms can be sold to the exchange for 50 cents and purchased for like amount. Anyone caring to donate unused uniforms are urged to do so. They will be put to good use.

In case you didn't know, there are two boxes in which to deposit the uniform—one at Preuss Pharmacy and the other at the Menlo Hardware.

On Friday, April 15, Mrs. Ted Fackler's St. Joseph's Troop 3 enjoyed a most commendable visit. The girls had prepared 16 Easter baskets which they delivered to the blind children at the Morning Glory Kindergarden in Palo Alto.

'TEEN-AGE CLUB PREPARES FOR CINDERELLA BALL

She will be assisted by Byron Bumbaca, Jim Nystrom, Betty Bolton, Andi Henderson, Lorene Carroll, Joanne Schmidt, Pat Ramsden, Premavera Romera, Jean Teckemeyer and several others.

Pat Ramsden will be narrator and mistress of ceremonies.

Have You Said
"I GUESS I'M NOT RELIGIOUS"?
Have you lost interest in the orthodox religions because science and common sense have made many of their creedal forms and doctrines seem unsound?
Do you feel that no church has all the truths of religion and therefore no church can properly dictate what you should believe in matters of theology over which wise men of all ages have differed?
Because its beliefs are not frozen into a set creed and it is open to all new truths, from whatever religious or secular source they may arise, Unitarianism is a modern, growing, strengthening faith!

RECREATION

manent bleachers at Nealon park, a curtain, backdrops and more seats at the Little theater and funds for increasing activities and improving recreation areas.

Other speakers were James Tormey, director of San Mateo Junior college adult education, who stressed the importance of coordinating municipal and school programs for well-rounded recreational activities; Ralph Shaw, San Mateo county superintendent of parks and recreation, who described the county's facilities, and Carson Conrad, recreation consultant of the state department of education.

Conrad urged that the group conduct a survey covering six fields: National youth serving agencies, such as Scouting; public or municipality activities; church groups; service clubs; commercial entertainment and recreation and the school system.

He advised the group to "Go slowly; conduct your survey with good community thinking." He pointed out that it was important not to duplicate facilities as this would be needless expense; that the survey should have on its staff youth, with its enthusiasm, its participation and good ideas; that there should be a "leisure hour" survey to find out what adults are doing and what they would like to do; that the survey should seek to find out activities to interest the 40% who "do nothing"; and that the survey should not only consider initial costs of any program, but the continuing operating costs without further taxation.

A panel discussion was moderated by Nathan Koblick, Menlo Park recreation commission member. O. H. Olson presided at the meeting.

Byron Bumbaca, Platter club president; Vernon Barker, Robin Lamson, Menlo Recreation teen-age president; Merl Peterson of Menlo Oaks, Donald Walker, Ravenswood-Willow Booster, George Cleese, Menlo Park, and Kendall volunteered to form an executive committee to help formulate the council and make preliminary plans for a recreational survey.

Boys 'Take Over' In MP Wednesday

Youth of Menlo Park will "take over" the community, including the city administration and business firms, next Wednesday when the Lions club holds its eleventh annual Boys' Day.

For the day, a selected group of boys from Menlo Park elementary schools will serve as mayor, city councilmen, city manager, chief of police, building inspector and fire chief. They are to be elected to those posts in voting at the three schools.

But these "city officials" won't be the only ones to take part in Boys day. Many others will be assigned to local business concerns and will work right along with owners and managers of establishments.

The Boys' Day program will be climaxed with a dinner for all the participating boys Wednesday evening at the Stanford village cafeteria, followed by entertainment at Burgess recreation park.

A news release last week erroneously gave Boys' Day date as April 29. The correct date is April 27.
